NB: 1. NEET (UG) qualified candidates who did not previously register for OJEE counselling, are to register and upload their documents for online verification and then fill and lock choices.
2. Candidates who are already registered and in the merit list, but unallotted in 1st round and candidates who were allotted seats in 1st round but not reported for admission, should not register again. But they have to fill and lock choices afresh, as their previously filled choices will be null and void.
3. Candidates, who after taking admission in the first round, have exercised the option of freeze or float, are not required to and thus shall not be given the option to do any additional choice filling for the second round. Candidates who have given 'freeze' as option, will retain their first-round allotments, while the allotments of the candidates who have given 'float' as their option may be upgraded or retained depending on their rank and the availability of seat as per choice.
4. The candidates who have taken admission in 1st or 2nd round of counselling (All India) are not eligible to participate in state Counselling. (As per MCI and Hon'ble Apex Court directives)
